Call to Worship – Psalm 130 CEB

I cry out to you from the depths, Lord—my Lord, listen to my voice!

Let your ears pay close attention to my request for mercy!

If you kept track of sins, Lord—my Lord, who would stand a chance?

But forgiveness is with you—that's why you are honored.

I hope, Lord. My whole being hopes, and I wait for God's promise.

My whole being waits for my Lord—

more than the night watch waits for morning;

yes, more than the night watch waits for morning!

Israel, wait for the Lord! Because faithful love is with the Lord;

because great redemption is with our God!

[God] is the one who will redeem Israel from all its sin.

Prayer for Healing

Lord, we lift our wounded selves to you.

We ask you to heal the wounds of our broken relationships. (Breath)

Lord, we lift our wounded selves to you.

We ask you to forgive us for the relationships we have broken with our selfishness and hatred. (Breath)

Lord, we lift our wounded selves to you.

We ask you to give us peace for relationships we could not mend before death. (Breath)

Lord, we lift our wounded selves to you.

We ask you to make our pain less for our beloved that have entered your eternal rest. (Breath)

Lord, we lift our wounded selves to you.

We ask for your peace. Be with us, Holy Spirit, and provide us healing, hope, and strength to love more fully every day – and receive love more fully every day. (Breath)

Hebrew Lesson: Psalm 24 CEB

^{24:1} The earth is the Lord's and everything in it,
the world and its inhabitants too.

² Because God is the one who established it on the seas;
God set it firmly on the waters.

³ Who can ascend the Lord's mountain?

Who can stand in his holy sanctuary?

⁴ Only the one with clean hands and a pure heart;
the one who hasn't made false promises,
the one who hasn't sworn dishonestly.

⁵ That kind of person receives blessings from the Lord and righteousness from the God who saves.

⁶ And that's how things are
with the generation that seeks him—
that seeks the face of Jacob's God.

⁷ Mighty gates: lift up your heads!
Ancient doors: rise up high!
So the glorious king can enter!

⁸ Who is this glorious king?
The Lord—strong and powerful!
The Lord—powerful in battle!

⁹ Mighty gates: lift up your heads!
Ancient doors: rise up high!
So the glorious king can enter!

¹⁰ Who is this glorious king?
The Lord of heavenly forces—
he is the glorious king!

Gospel Lesson: Matthew 5:1-12 CEB

^{5:1} Now when Jesus saw the crowds, he went up a mountain. He sat down and his disciples came to him. ² He taught them, saying:

³ "Happy are people who are hopeless, because the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

⁴ "Happy are people who grieve, because they will be made glad.

⁵ "Happy are people who are humble, because they will inherit the earth.

⁶ "Happy are people who are hungry and thirsty for righteousness, because they will be fed until they are full.

⁷ "Happy are people who show mercy, because they will receive mercy.

⁸ "Happy are people who have pure hearts, because they will see God.

⁹ "Happy are people who make peace, because they will be called God's children.

¹⁰ “Happy are people whose lives are harassed because they are righteous, because the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

¹¹ “Happy are you when people insult you and harass you and speak all kinds of bad and false things about you, all because of me. ¹² Be full of joy and be glad, because you have a great reward in heaven. In the same way, people harassed the prophets who came before you.

Affirmation of Faith – The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

...using the words Jesus taught his disciples, praying...

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on Earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Announcements:

Fall Congregational Meeting November 8th: The Fall Congregational Meeting of Grace Presbyterian Church will be on November 8th over Zoom following worship. Details will come next week, and we will be reaching out to our less technically savvy members to see how we can help them connect. Watch your mail and email for the specific items we will be voting on.

Christmas Eve Services: We will have 2 Christmas Eve Services – a short, outdoor service at 3:00 and a full, remote service at 5:30. The remote service will have candle lighting for Silent Night, as always. If you would like a stick candle for that service, please let the office know!

Technology and Worship Help: We are in need of a few more hands to help make our remote worship smoother and take some weight off Pastor Rob's shoulders. We need:

- Zoom Meeting and Facebook Greeters
- Camera and/or Soundboard Operators
- Lay Leaders from the sanctuary.

If you would be interested in helping us out in any of these capacities, please let Pastor Rob know! We will also need a few people to film themselves lighting Advent Candles remotely and send them to Pastor Rob. We love some of our out-of-town folks to participate in this!

Pastoral Care: If you have a pastoral care need, please contact Pastor Rob or the office. In this time of weirdness, it's tough to know what's going on in everyone's life when we don't see each other each week, and everyone needs support and to support each other!

Zoom Fellowship: Thursday Morning at 11:00 we will have Coffee Fellowship! Look for announcements about other remote fellowship opportunities in the coming weeks!

Rake and Run: After Church on November 8th, we will meet at Grace to rake lawns and do good! More details to follow; watch your email and mailings!

Birthdays and Anniversaries

November 1st: John and Nancy Current's Anniversary

November 4th: Nan Gilbert's Birthday

November 7th: Dee Cattin's Birthday

November 7th: Carl Geist's Birthday

Prayer Requests

Bill Konkle (Mary Konkle's Grandfather): In nursing home recovering from stroke; long road ahead.

The Mahoneys: Jen's niece Lexus is moving in with them this week. Also, Jen's health concerns.

Upcoming US Elections and anticipated unrest no matter the results.

Continued struggles with the pandemic, including isolation and mental health concerns.

Franz Liszt used this melody for a "Crusaders' March" in an oratorio, but this hymn had nothing to do with the Crusades. No record of the German text exists before the middle of the 17th century or of the Silesian folk melody before the first half of the 19th century.

We Are Forgiven

We are for - giv - en. We are for - giv - en. Thanks be to

 We are for - giv - en. Thanks be to God. Thanks be to God.

To sing, rather than simply say, a response to the Declaration of Forgiveness has the effect of making the moment both more affirmative and more corporate. The musical repetition of the two sentences also strengthens awareness of what it means to be assured of God's pardon.

This tuneful retelling of the salvation story began in Swedish and was translated into German and then into Russian before reaching its English form. Despite such linguistic and musical revisions, it continues to be a meaningful source of comfort to many people.

This text is a remarkable expression of faith born of grief. The author, an active Presbyterian layman who had just lost four daughters in a tragic shipwreck, wrote it while sailing to Paris to meet his wife, who had survived. The tune was named for the ship that sank.
